6 Rite Stuff

We haven't tried this one out but it looks pretty nifty. Hammerite Rust Remover Gel squeezes out of the tube and on to your bodywork. It's non-harmful and it won't attack your paintwork.

Cost: £4.99

8 Lap It Up

The CG-Lock is an American import, now available in the UK. It is a small mechanism that attaches to a three-point seatbelt and lets you tighten up the lap strap for better security. Basically it saves you from sliding across the seat on sharp track corners.

Cost: £49.99
